MONEY AND MUSCLE.

How They Have Told Together to Improve the Bower City During 1881.

A Glance at What the Busy Builders Have Been Doing.

A Good Showing.

As day follows upon day, and brick is added to brick, and board to board, one busy with other thoughts is apt to notice but lightly the building improvements which mark Janesville as a city of progress and growth. Almost every day the remark is heard that Janesville remains about the same. Such a remark shows thoughtlessness and lack of observation, and yet so many have their attention engrossed with other matters that they realize little of the growth which is made yearly. It is therefore of benefit to stop just on the brink of the departing year, and take a glance at facts and figures. It is impossible to gather all that has been done, but enough can be gathered to fairly surprise those who have thought little of it. If there was any lack of faith in Janesville's prosperous present and hopeful future a glance at the year's progress would surely re-assure one. The builders have been busy this year. Many small improvements have been made, too many to warrant enumeration, and many needed repairs have been made, but aside from these there have been stores built, new houses erected, and large improvements made, so that workmen have not had occasion to complain because no man hath hired them.

BUSINESS IMPROVEMENTS.

The new McLean woolen mill at Monterey has been built to take the place of the one which was burned. The building has cost in the neighborhood of $15,000 and with the machinery will reach nearly $70,000.

Peter Myers has finished the interior of his block the walls of which were raised last year. He has this year spent about $15,000 in this enterprise. He has also put steam heating apparatus in his Opera house at a cost of $1,150.

Randall Williams built his two-story block of six stores this season, costing about $10,000.

H. A. Doty has replaced his feed mill destroyed by fire, the new building being a marked improvement and costing a little less than $11,000, including the building in which his office is located.

David Jeffris has built a handsome addition to the Grand hotel costing about $4,000.

The interior of the Congregational chapel has been finished at an expenditure of $2,500.

The First National bank has spent $300 in building improvements.

T. J. Cairns & Bro.'s new two-story brick store cost at least $9,000.

B. J. Daly has built a store of nearly the same value.

Hogoboom & Atwood's new ice house, built this season, cost $4,000, and the same firm built a store house near the depot, costing $500.

C. T. Wilcox has built a two-story store on River street, and a blacksmith shop in the rear, at a cost of $2,000.

Oscar Rowe's new tobacco warehouse cost $1,700.

Ray & Bailey's cotton batting factory has been improved to the extent of $1,000 on the buildings alone.

Clark & Hield have built a coal shed, and made some lesser improvements, costing in all $1,000.

The new Morocco factory building erected this year cost nearly $1,600.

William Hemming has made some important improvements in his brewery besides building a tobacco shed which cost about $300.

The county has spent in building a new workhouse at the jail, and a workhouse for tramps, about $700.

To say nothing of other improvements in the park, a band-house has been built at a cost of $100.

The cotton factory has put $400 into building improvements.

J. S. Draper has enlarged and improved his warehouse to the extent of at least $500.

C. B. Conrad has expended $500 in building his tobacco warehouse in the rear of his store.

Shoppell & Norris have built on the race a $500 store house for holding portions of their stock.

The Janesville Guards paid out $300 in finishing their armory, providing lockers and other needed conveniences, outside of any bills for furnishing.

William Maclean has built a coalshed costing at least $400.

Mr. Gately has built another new ice house at Monterey, near the big rock. It must have cost $600.

St. Patrick's church has been re-roofed, painted and improved to the extent of $1,000.

J. W. Carpenter has made marked improvement in the convenience and looks of his coal and wood office, $250.

Frank C. Bennett has built a cosy little marble shop costing $100 or thereabouts.

J. Truckwood has also built a marble shop at a cost of perhaps $125.

The block on North Main street owned by Menzies and Carlson has been improved to the extent of $300 for $400. In fact a number of the business blocks have been improved in appearance and value, by putting in new fronts, etc., as in the case of the stores in Mr. Lappin's block, and Tallman's store opposite the postoffice.

The store formerly occupied by Hauchett & Sheldon is being greatly improved throughout. Mr. George Gordon, of Milwaukee, has spent $300 to $400 in improving his building, known as the Ogden house block. There have been some improvements made in the interior of the Rock County National bank. In fact in fact in many of the business blocks minor changes have been made for the better.

Aside from the usual repairs of the public school buildings, new floors have been laid in three of the rooms of the High School building, and new furniture provided. Some of the rooms in other buildings also need a like improvement, especially in furniture. A new well has been dug at the High School building, also. The First ward building has been supplied with three new furnaces, and the heating arrangements changed throughout.

H. S. Woodruff has built a corn crib in the rear of his buckle works, and placed a grinder in one end, thus expending $150 or so.

Court street bridge has been rebuilt this year at a cost of about $3,000, and Monterey bridge has necessitated an expenditure of $1,200 to $1,500.

A new coal shed at the Institution for the Blind cost $125.

Looking through the

RESIDENCE PORTIONS

of the city, one finds too, that the workmen have not been idle. There are on all sides improvements and new buildings, to say nothing of the little changes which have been made to cause the homes to become more comfortable and more attractive. One improvement, strange as it may seem, consists in what has been torn down, especially in the line of fences. There has been somewhat of a rage, since the cow ordinance went into effect, and many have taken their fences down entirely, giving a much pleasanter look to the lots, and the residences appearing to much better advantage. But let us look at what has been done in actual improvement. Stepping into

THE FIRST WARD,

we find that E. G. Fifield has built a new house, taken possession of by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherer. The house cost about $2,500.

L. L. Robinson is building an elegant house on Jackson street, on which he has already expended from $2,500 to $3,000.

Dr. E. E. Loomis has a fine residence in process of building, and has also built a fine barn on the same premises. He has expended about $2,500 thus far.

Ernest H. Fellows has made improvements to the extent of $550.

J. W. Sale, improvements, $250. George Watts, new house, $300.

H. P. Lumley, improvement to house, $100.

C. Lilly, tobacco shed, and coal house, $175.

E. T. Foote, new barn, $250, and improvements on house.

Hugh McCaffery's house improved $400.

Charles E. Church, improvement, $200.

H. C. Oalkins, tobacco shed, $500.

J. R. Mole, new house, $800.

George Grant, tobacco shed, $500.

Martin Barron, tobacco shed, $150.

Mrs. Dumpley, addition to house, $175.

Charles Dutton, addition to barn, $100.

C. G. Williams, improvement on house, $150.

Henry Smith, improvement on house, $130.

J. C. Metcalf, improvement on house, $400.

W. T. Pomeroy, improvement on house, $500.

H. S. Woodruff, improvement on house, $500.

John Winers, improvement on house, $400.

E. G. Harb, improvement on house, $400.

E. H. Davies, improvement on house, $150.

H. K. Lee, Dr. Clifton, and others have also improved their homes. B. F. Crosssett has had his home very nicely frescoed by Mr. Fritz, who has shown rare skill and taste.

IN THE SECOND WARD

there are also improvements to be noted. J. J. Comstock must have expended $1,000 upon his place.

E. Shoppell is building a fine house, on which he has already paid out $2,500.

John Decker has built a $1,000 house on Milton avenue.

Patrick Cantwell, addition to house, $150.

Frederick Manake, new house, $400.

Mrs. Grossbeck's residence has been improved $300.

Patrick McGinley, new house, $300.

A. Hanson, new house, $350.

E. E. Edgington, tobacco shed, $200.

J. J. B. Pease has built a new barn and two tobacco sheds at a cost of $1,500.

L. Miller, improvement, $100.

John Stanton, new barn, $350.

F. G. Stevens & Co., new barn, $100.

A. W. Baldwin has made some improvements on his old home.

An interesting improvement contest seems to be in progress between Messrs. Rutter and Barriage, neighbors on Bluff street, who have been spending some time and money this year in filling in their lots and raising their homes, each seeming to try to get further heavenward than the other.

THE THIRD WARD

was not quite so much improved as last year.

S. W. Smith, improvement, $150. S. Hotelling, new barn and improvement on house, $375.

William Cooley, new house, $225. Frank Gray, improvement, $600.

John Davis, improvement, $150. Henry Jarvis new house, $175.

O. H. Root, new house, $175.

IN THE FIFTH WARD

J. T. Wilcox has made some marked improvements on his house, probably costing $600.

J. H. Bliss has improved his house $25.

The improvements on John Heath's house amount to $400.

Dr. Q. O. Sutherland has spent about $500 in repairing his house, damaged by fire.

Mrs. Norton has built a new house, costing $500.

John Kagan, addition to house, $150. Patrick McCaffery, improvement, $200.

Michael Fary has built a large tobacco shed.

THE TOTAL SHOWING

is an excellent one. The improvements noted alone amount to over $130,000, and this will by no means cover all the work done, as there are many smaller improvements going on continually. In view of these facts Janesville may well take pride in its prosperity and growth. Few cities in the country have so excellent a financial showing, in few cities are taxes so light, and in few places is there such a steady increase in the value of real estate, and so few of the demoralizing fluctuations in prices of property. Without any special reason, to react suddenly, Janesville progresses surely and steadily. May the new year bring still more such permanent growth.

FOR TWO YEARS.

Louis Bradley, who burglarized Towle's dry goods store in Beloit, was before Judge Pattee yesterday afternoon, the motion for a new trial being argued. The motion was overruled and Louis was sentenced to State prison for two years, and left for that place this afternoon. It will prove no new life for Bradley, as he has already served there eighteen months, having been discharged only last October, and had no sooner got free than he resumed his old business of plundering.

PERSONAL.

—J. H. Balch's sister, from New York, arrived this afternoon for a visit to him and his.

—Miss Laura Conklin, of Fond du Lac, is in the city visiting Mrs. Charles E. Cummings, Miss Jones, and other friends.

—Philip Knippenborg's daughter, Christina, who has been attending the institution for the deaf and dumb, at Delavan, has been permitted to enjoy the holiday season at home. She has made wonderful progress under the training received there, and her parents feel greatly gratified at the educational benefits which she is receiving, and at the interest she is herself taking in her advancement. On Tuesday evening she entertained a few of her friends in a very happy manner.

BEFORE THE FOOTLIGHTS.

To-morrow evening Smith's great double Uncle Tom's Cabin company appear at Lappin's Music hall.

Hartman's gift show is booked for the Opera house, January 3.

Bills are out for Haverley's "Widow Bedott" company to be at the Opera house January 7.

John B. Gough is to lecture at the Congregational church, Feb. 1.

Deakin's Lithuanian Comic Opera company is to give the operetta, "Jack, the Giant Killer, at the Opera house, February 2.

Hi Henry's Premium Minstrel company will appear at the Opera house February 3.

A SHOOTING SCAPE.

Last evening there was an exciting time for a few minutes at the meat market of A. F. Kruger, in Church's block.

Bert Kaufman, of Center, called at the shop in company with Thomas Thurman, who is visiting him from Chicago. Kaufman had some business transaction with Kruger, and during its progress the latter became irritated at what he considered an interference on the part of the visitor, Thurman. Kruger ordered Thurman out of the shop. He refused to go, and Kruger put him out. In the struggle Thurman hit Kruger one in the eye, and soon after, drew a revolver, and attempted to fire it, but could not make the cylinder revolve. After being put outside, he succeeded in firing the revolver, but the ball lodged in the building or somewhere else, where it did no harm. Just then officer John Brown appeared upon the scene and arrested him, and lodged the man in jail, where he will await examination.

COMING TO-MORROW NIGHT.

The only "Double" Uncle Tom's Cabin Company in the world, and the one in which Sam Lucas, the well known colored comedian and vocalist, plays the part of Uncle Tom, will appear at Lappin's hall to-morrow evening. The company appeared in Dubuque last Saturday, and the Daily Times says:

"The company is the best playing Uncle Tom's Cabin ever in Dubuque."

The Daily Herald says:

"The audience was pleased, and voted it the best rendition of the play ever in this city."

Nearly every city crowds the halls, and people are turned away almost nightly.

The company open at the Olympic Theater, Chicago, Monday, with a New Year's matinee, for eleven performances.

The company play in Boston Theater, seating 3,500 people, and the largest theater in America, soon; also in Niblo's Garden Theater, New York, managed by J. H. Haverly, of Chicago.

The Milwaukee papers state the company to be the best ever in that city.

The enormous success of the company is accounted for in the size of the company and experts, Mr. Sam Lucas being paid nearly as much salary alone as the average Uncle Tom's Cabin managers pay their entire company.

BRILLIANT.

—Shall we have sleighing for New Years?

—The Temple of Honor celebrates its sixth anniversary this evening in a semi-public way.

—The Guards are arranging for a series of parties, the first to be given one week from to-night.

—Remember the double attractions offered by Smith's Uncle Tom's Cabin company at Lappin's Music hall to-morrow evening.

—The Swedish Ladies' Quartette, together with the dramatic reader, Miss Emilie Gavin, gave an entertainment in Beloit last night.

—The Merry club will meet in Cannon's hall as usual this evening. Two weeks from to-night it will meet in Appolo hall, but not to night.

—Beloit boasts of some family gatherings of the old-time eastern style. At a recent tea party at Mrs. C. Fall's there were four generations of the family present.

—Jacob Ehringer has been called upon to answer a charge of assaulting a German at Hanover. The case is to be heard in the Municipal court to-morrow afternoon.

—Every member of the Temple of Honor is requested to be at their hall next Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, prepared to attend the funeral of their brother, George Cook.

—The telephones still remain in use at the court house, and prove so much of a convenience not only to those in the building, but to the public, who save steps thereby, that the county board will probably decide to continue their use.

—Those who expect to receive New Year's calls, and who desire to have the same known, are requested to leave their names at the Gazette office, or send them by mail, so that they will reach us as early as an hour as possible, in order that they may be published in to-morrow evening's Gazette.

—The funeral services of the late George Cook are to be held next Sunday afternoon at Court Street church, at 2:30 o'clock, there being a brief service at the house a half hour earlier. The services are to be under the auspices of the Temple of Honor. Rev. O. A. Curtis to be the officiating clergyman at the church.

—The county committee on public buildings yesterday accepted the work done on the new insane asylum, and expect to have it finished and occupied in about two weeks. The building complete with furnishings will cost a little less than $10,000. It is heated by steam, and steam is also being used now for the other buildings.

—Dr. Humphrey, assisted by Dr. Obitenden, performed a very delicate surgical operation yesterday afternoon, consisting of the formation of an artificial pupil in the left eye of a young lady, who came to this city for treatment, and is stopping at the residence of Mr. Swan. Dr. Humphrey is proving himself very skillful in the treatment of eye and ear troubles, and in performing needed operations upon them, and many are seeking his aid, feeling satisfied that it is just as well to employ home skill as to seek it in Chicago, Milwaukee, or other larger cities than Janesville.

—Last evening Masonic hall was the scene of a happy gathering of members of the fraternity and friends, there being a public installation of the officers of the four bodies, the Knights Templar, the two lodges, and the chapter. There were forty-eight officers installed. Impromptu speeches were made by Rev. J. W. Sanderson, Rev. T. W. MacLean, J. W. Stewart, of Chicago, Fenner Kimball, Dr. C. Loftus Martin, J. C. Metcalf, and others. Excellent music was given, Mrs. Stevens presiding at the piano, and the singers being Miss Estelle Griswold, Miss Fannie Ray, Miss Pond, Rev. Mr. MacLean and Wells Ray. A tempting banquet was prepared by Mrs. Ehringer, and was heartily enjoyed. In fact all arrangements were such that the occasion was a very happy and interesting one.

DEATH OF MRS. WINANS.

At an early hour this morning, death claimed Mrs. Emma Wood Winans, wife of our well known citizen and attorney, John Winans. For several days her life has hung as by a thread, and yet its breaking comes as a sudden crushing of hope. The blow to the bereaved husband to whom she was married only about a year ago, is a heavy and sad one, and calls forth the tenderest sympathy in this community, where he has lived so many years, and where the one now gone has made her home since childhood. She leaves two, a babe, too young to know aught of its loss. There are three brothers also, Samuel C. Wood who lives here, William, who lives in Milwaukee, and Joseph Wood, whose home is in Brooklyn. Mrs. Winans was a woman of many powers and charms to gladden her own home, and brighten the circle of friendship, and many there are in this city whose hearts will be saddened at hearing that her earthly life is closed. The funeral services will probably be held next Sunday afternoon.

THE WEATHER.
